

Temperance Column.

By the Ocala Temperance Reform Club.

Rev. J. P. Hilburn and Isaac Stevens, Editors

The Club meets every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Temperance Hall. The Public are invited.

AN HONEST CONFESSION.

A minister once asked a saloon keeper if his conscience never troubled him regarding his business.

The man said: "Come inside, sir."

It was the middle of the day. There were none of the usual customers about.

My friend walked in. The grog seller went behind his own bar, and leaning on it said:

"Reverend sir, there are times when I stand behind this bar and look at the men who fill this room; I hear their blasphemy and their lewd songs; I see their fighting and their awful misconduct, and I often say to myself, 'If there is a picture of hell on earth, it is in places like this.'"—Golden Censer.

One of the most remarkable facts of this age is that one man can close the saloons on Sunday in New York city, and every indication leads us to believe that Sunday is as dry in New York as any churchman could wish. Roosevelt must be the "new" man.—Fulton Telegraph.

The Ancient Order of United Workmen, for example, a secret fraternal organization numbering 32,000 members in the United States and Canada, excludes from its membership, and always has, during the twenty-seven years of its existence, "saloon keepers, bartenders, and habitual drunkards as well."

INTELLIGENCE OFFICE.

This has long been needed by the white ladies and gentlemen of this city. But now we can save them many hours of hunting servants or workmen of every kind by applying at this office. Also phosphate or railroad men who need hands by coming or writing to the New York Steam Dye Works, Ocala, Fla. P. O. Box 861.
